

Joyful Catholic Families

Which is it?

The Annunciation or
The Immaculate Conception

©Joyful Catholic Families 2021

Immaculate Conception

Annunciation

Feast day: March 25th	Feast day: December 8th
Holy Day of Obligation	Not a Holy Day of Obligation
Mary says "Yes" to the angel and to God's plan for her	Anne and Joachim are Mary's parents
Anne conceives Mary	Mary conceives Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit
Anne's pregnancy begins on December 8th	Mary's pregnancy begins on March 25th
Jesus now has a human nature and a divine nature	Mary has no stain of original sin from the moment her life begins in the body of her mother Anne
Nine months later, Mary is born on September 8th	Nine months later, Jesus is born on December 25th
This story is told in Scripture	This story does not appear in Scripture

ANSWERS

Immaculate Conception

Annunciation

Feast day: December 8th

Feast day: March 25th

Holy Day of Obligation

Not a Holy Day of Obligation

Anne and Joachim are Mary's parents

Mary says "Yes" to the angel and to God's plan for her

Anne conceives Mary

Mary conceives Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit

Anne's pregnancy begins on December 8th

Mary's pregnancy begins on March 25th

Mary has no stain of original sin from the moment her life begins in the body of her mother Anne

Jesus now has a human nature and a divine nature

Nine months later, Mary is born on September 8th

Nine months later, Jesus is born on December 25th

This story does not appear in Scripture

This story is told in Scripture